NOB HILL BOYS' SUCCESSFUL CIRCUS

On Monday afternoon, August 25. the Nob Hill boys gave a circus in Newcomb's barn that was in every way a success and very creditable to young performers. The trapeze work by Signor Smith was very fine, equalled only by his feats of heavy lifting with his teeth.

A good and scientific example of wrestling that greatly pleased the audience was given by the Newcomb brothers, refereed by D. Smith.

The clowns, Alyson Smith Winthrop Newcomb, in their dress and chalky faces, were persistently in evidence doing the funny stunts with all the assurance of their professional brothers.

BACK FROM COLORADO

Rev. A. F. Wittenberger has returned from his vacation trip in Colorado. He reports the mining towns in southwestern Colorado so dead that even the saloons, which are still numerous, have difficulty in making both ends meet. Yet hopes are freey expressed for a revival of mining n the famous San Juan region.

The scene in that section is unsurpassed and more attempts should be made to get the tourist to come over the mountain, even to Utah.
Fruit conditions in the Grand valley are excellent; carloads are mov-

To Denver belongs the credit of setting the highest mark by the magnificence, almost barbaric, splendor of its street decorations.

'It would be grand," says Mr. Wittenberger, "if one could be persuaded that the city did this out of sheer love for the Knight's qualities and not for

WEEKLY SUMMARY OF STOCK MARKET

New York, Aug. 30 .- All other considerations influencing speculative opinion were subordinated this week to the relation between this country and Mexico, and fluctuations of stock corresponded to the tenor of the news concerning this situation. The chief effect of this uncertainty was to restrict trade. No marked weakness developed toward the close of the week. When the street reached the opinion that the outlook was definitebetter there was a strong upward movement. Aside from Mexican af fairs the week's developments were of varying import

Reports regarding the damage to cotton from drouth were pessimistic in tone. July railroad statements dis on the Tabernacle, on Twenty-second closed a number of heavy decreases in net earnings among the large roads. Strength of copper stocks was due to optimistic reports from the copper trade and advancing prices of
